For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation
- Include your information in a hospital directory

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

In the case of fundraising:

- We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you

- We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.

  Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.

Run our organization

- We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.

  Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.

Bill for your services

- We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.

  Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.

How else can we use or share your health information? We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

- Help with public health and safety issues
  - We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:
    - Preventing disease
    - Helping with product recalls
    - Reporting adverse reactions to medications
    - Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
    - Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone’s health or safety

- Do research
  - We can use or share your information for health research.

- Comply with the law
  - We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

- Respond to organ and tissue donation requests
  - We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.

- Work with a medical examiner or funeral director
  - We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

- Address workers’ compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests
  - We can use or share health information about you:
    - For workers’ compensation claims
    - For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
    - With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
    - For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions
  - We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

We may also use or share your health information:

* with third party business associates who perform various activities under written contracts that require the same privacy and security protections*
* to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment*
* to tell you about possible treatment options, alternatives, or other health-related benefits and services*
Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice
We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site.

Notice effective September 23, 2013

This Notice of Privacy Practices applies to the following organizations.

This Notice applies to Montgomery County Memorial Hospital (MCMH) employees, healthcare professionals, and independent providers who use or disclose your protected health information to carry out treatment, initiate payment, conduct healthcare operations, and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. The MCMH medical campus allows patients to receive care from both hospital staff and independent providers who share your health information that is generated from your inpatient, outpatient, or medical office visits. Independent providers include local physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and other healthcare professionals who hold outpatient clinics in the MCMH facility or Villisca medical office.

This Notice does not cover the privacy practices of the independent providers or healthcare professionals while at their private offices or other locations.
